BB-24

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Virginia City, Nevada

Virginia City street scene looking to the north and showing some of the buildings on the west side of "C" Street. In the foreground is the oldest church in Virginia City, built by the Presbyterians in 1867 and still in fair condition.

PUB. BY THE OLD LAMP POST, VIRGINIA CITY, NEV.
PHOTOGRAPHY BY WALTER MULCAHY

MIRRO-KROME CARD BY H. S. CROCKER CO., INC., SAN FRANCISCO 1, CALIF.

address

place stamp here